MY LIGHT AND MY SALVATION

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?-Ps. 27:1

A certain man was driving on a road which went through a thick forest, which was full of gigantic elephants. But unfortunately, as he was approaching the middle of the jungle, he saw an elephant which was nursing its calf standing in the center of the road. He took courage and drove near the elephant. The elephant stood stone still. She continued suckling her baby. The man drove nearer and nearer to the elephant. "This is a female elephant," the man said to himself. "It cannot hurt me." He drove closer and closer. He hooted louder and louder. As his car was just about to touch the baby elephant, the elephant seized the car and broke it into pieces. The man was crushed and died. The car never touched the baby elephant. If the baby elephant was a human being, he could have said, "My mother is my salvation; whom shall I fear? My mother is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

In the midst of constant war; in the midst of numerous enemies; David trusted the great protector and thus he was able to say, "The Lord is my light, and my salvation; whom shall, I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life. The Lord is my refuge; of whom shall I be afraid?" Whenever we are confronted with enemies, we should ever remember that the Lord is on our side. The Lord is like the all-powerful and all-knowing and the safest stronghold. He takes care of us more than the elephant takes care of her calf. Thus, my beloved, let us trust our loving Father. As the Bible puts it: "cast all your cares upon Him, for he cares for you".

Praise the Lord. I have been going through eye treatment and my eye have improved tremendously . This week we have a visit from our brother and sisters from Dallas, led by Archdeacon Joseph Gatungu who gave us lot of food and words of encouragement. We really experience love which tastes better than honey.

We are most grateful for all those who have been supporting the ministry which the Lord has given us. We ask all the affiliate and friends to send their generous contribution. Make your tax-deductible check payable to ANCCI or electronically as www.allnationscci.org. For a donation of $50 or more request for a book and see the list on above address.

Wishing all the fathers a happy fathers' day.
May the Lord protect and richly bless you.
