It was on Palm Sunday (April 9, 2017) when Mary and I were led by the Spirit to attend Zoey Church, which is pastored by Pastor Eliazard Mundakikwa, a doctoral student at our Seminary. Eliazard is a refugee from Congo DR and his community was an object of annihilation by the militia who killed sixty-two members of his Church in Congo. He narrowly escaped death when he was hidden by a friend, a member of the other tribe. When the militia came searching for him, his friend didn't disclose where he was and so the killer searched the house and when they located him, they decided to save Eliazard and killed his host. Having gone through persecution Zoey church worship in Spirit and truth. The worship team dance and leap in Spirit. There is a high degree of lay participation in the worship. The members of Zoey Church, not only that they participate in worship but also take their spirituality to the world. They tend to epitomize the teaching and practice St Dom Virgil Michel, leader of liturgical movement (1890-1938) He wrote: "the entire life of the true Christian must be a reflection and a further expression of his life at the altar of God. If he is predominantly a passive Christian there, can we expect him to be an active Christian in his daily life out in the world?" Several members gave short prophetic messages and the associate pastor give a short message which was following the sermon from Eliazard. He employed dialogical methods which is encourage at ANCCIU. Preaching from a minor prophet, he jokingly said: "I will not tell you why some prophets are called major prophet while others are called minor in the presence of my professor. I will do that when he is not with us." Pastor Eliazard message was powerful which was followed by the announcements. The Pastor introduced his professor and referred to him as Mtu Mkubwa duniani (a world celebrity). This was followed by the Holy Communion. Mary was asked to give absolution while the Patriarch gave the bread. We felt spiritually nourished and affirmed. We are most grateful to Pastor Eliazard and his lovely Christians

FROM THE NATIONS

PHILIPPINE, BISHOP STEPHEN How are our beloved Patriarch ++John? As for us here, our situation is still very scary, every now and then we receive threats from the ISIS.... more than a thousand have been killed because of the siege in Malawi, and right now, there are about 35,000 displaced people here in Iligan City. . .

Every time we receive donations we deliver them right away to one of the Evacuation Centers, even how small it is.... this coming Wednesday we will be going to a Muslim School, and distribute some goods to each family.....
We are preparing goods for 150 Families

Bishop Stephen Villaester.
