LET THE CHILDREN COME TO ME

Let the children come to me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belong to such as this. Luke18: 15-17

Mary and I were flying from Ontario, CA to Amarillo TX with Southwest which did not locate a seat. The available seat for me was between two Anglo American female passengers. The one on my left was 70 years old who never opened her mouth. On my right was blond hair 7 years old who was talking nonstop. At first I thought that she was talking to her family at the back seat. Paying more attention, I found no one was responding to her. "Who are you talking with "I asked. "I am talking to my hair." Where are your spent Christmas my step father and particularly Our Bishops and Africa refer to me were amused by parents?" I queried. "I do not have parents. I have step parents. I with I am returning to my stepmother." I was moved with compassion because three of my titles Abuna, Padre, Patriarch mean Father. ministers in Asia and as Father and Mary as mother and not step parents. Recently we our bishop in Africa who concluded his email message with a cry: "000000000i Mom, I want to be breastfed!"
