GOD'S GRACE PRECEDES AND FOLLOW US.

At a personal level this summer was the most challenging time for Mary and I. The death of our two sisters, Mary and Jane set us at the lowest web. This was particularly because our two sisters were both great friends and our heroes. Mary experienced depression. In September I had laser surgery on both eyes. Yet we have experienced abundance grace. The collect for last Sunday epitomizes the activities of God in our lives: "lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen"

Our sufferings do not compare with what God's people have gone through in Haiti and North Carolina. Imagine losing your loved one, your house and all your belongings including your money. Yesterday you had a home, now you are homeless. Let us keep these people of God in our prayers. Our suffering does not compare with St. Paul's tribulation. In Paul's words: "For which (the Gospel) I am in suffering even to the point of being chained like a criminal, but the Gospel is not chained." For whatever you may be going through, don't let the devil chain the Gospel. If you are facing the storm, Like Jonah, wake up and convert the people who are with you in the boat, if swallowed by the fish and vomited to Nineveh, preach the Gospel to those who are not your own kind. Do greater things for God. Remember, it was when Paul was in prison that he preached to the Jailor, governor Festus, king Agrippa, those who were with him in the ship, the praetorian guard. Better still he wrote the prison and pastoral Epistles.

In September we were celebrant of golden wedding anniversary of Dr Stephen, and Mandrine Ileri. Asked about their secrets of success, Mandrine Who has written a book entitled, my husband My Hero, responded: "when there is an argument; pause, ponder, pray. Have water. Drink water. Don't Swallow." This ends the argument because you cannot argue with water in your mouth.
