The course introduces you to the field of psychology as it relates to human behavior, from the Christian point of view. A cross examination of the Sermon on the Mountain (in Matthew chapters 5-7), portray clearly that Jesus both understood and applied the principles of Psychology. The text book in reference will help you apply and enjoy unraveling these principles to your everyday experiences. This will enrich your Christian life tremendously.

OBJECTIVES

- > To have the basic fundamental principles of human behavior as they relate to your daily life experiences.
- ➤ To have foundational sediment of principles upon which to build advanced courses in various disciplines of Psychology, such as Counseling Psychology, and Educational Psychology.
- ➤ To appreciate the way Jesus taught and how he related to man in real life experiences.
- > To be cautioned of your own feelings, sensations, perceptions, and ways of behaving.
- > To develop and understand other people by observation, introspection, inquiry, and the study of human experience and behavior, both in self and others.
