

ANCCI UNIVERSITY
P.O.19805, Amarillo, TX 79015
CH 304 Jesus and History

RATIONALE

This study is of great importance to answer the questions which liberal scholars have asked regarding the historicity of the Gospels and have explained away the miracles performed by Jesus Christ

OBJECTIVES

The course will:

1. Give a simple introduction to the history of Jesus
2. Show that the Gospel record were not written too long after the time of Christ by those who did not have eyewitness information about the life of Christ .
3. Intends to condense and simplify the argument for reliability of the Gospel
4. Prove that the existence of four Gospels with variation enhances rather than diminishes their credibility

STRETAGY:

- To discuss the historical reliability of the Gospel
- Examine Jesus and Gospel history AD 30-60
- Study the life of Jesus in the Epistles Examine how the Gospel people are mentioned in the non-Christian sources
- Study the historical aspect of the Gospel

EVALUATION: Exam and/or essay question All Nations Seminary system of grading will be employed

TEXT BOOK Steven Waterhouse. Jesus and History. Amarillo. Westcliff Press, 2009. The book is available at ANS or Westcliff Church. RECOMMENDED BOOKSh