Professor John Githiga

RATIONALE

1. To learn that the Holy Spirit is fundamental since the Holy Spirit is the greatest promise and the greatest gift of all to the human kind.
2. Holy Spirit is more than a subject. He is the Presence of the Father and the Son in the believers.
3. Holy Spirit is a dynamic Power for evangelism and healing and reconciliation.

OBJECTIVES

To study and know the dynamic power of the Holy Spirit for evangelism, healing, reconciliation, justification and glorification and to distinguish between the gifts of the Holy Spirit from the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

STRATEGY

We will cover the following topics:

1. The Holy Spirit is the greatest Promise
2. The dynamic power of the Holy Spirit
3. The Radiance of the Holy Spirit
4. How the community of the Holy Spirit enjoys suffering and glorification.
5. The work of the Holy Spirit
6. The fruits of the holy Spirit
7. The Holy Spirit and traditional religions

TEXT BOOK

THE HOLY SPIRIT: The Greatest Promise and the Greatest Gift of All. By Dr. John G Githiga (EBook). You will need a computer with Microsoft Word.

EVALUATION

EITHER

1. Either discuss the difference between the work and the fruit of the Holy Spirit and show how some churches over emphasize one of the gifts of the Spirit.
2. Or give the summary of the book by showing how it has impacted on your life.
3. Or write a critical incident similar to those of Padre Penda, using the insight in the book, show how you dealt with the challenge.
